LETTER OF COMMENDATION

to

QUARTERMASTER SEAMAN APPRENTICE JENNIFER JADE DAVIS UNITED STATES NAVY

"For outstanding performance while serving as a member of the Accident and Incident Response Team, USS HALEAKALA (AE 25) from 22 June to 23 August 1992. You performed your duties in an exemplary and highly professional manner, demonstrating in-depth knowledge, personal drive, and extreme dedication to duty as an A&I Team Member. Your enthusiasm and pride in your work clearly demonstrated that USS HALEAKALA's A&I Team is "Nothing Less Than The Best" and recognized as one of the best teams during the Nuclear Weapons Assessment Team visit and Nuclear Weapons Acceptance Inspection. diligence, resourcefulness and perseverance contributed significantly to the accomplishment of USS HALEAKALA's mission and the receipt of an outstanding grade from Nuclear Weapons Acceptance Inspectors. Your professionalism and devotion to duty reflect great credit upon yourself and are in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service."

To:

OM3 Jennifer Davis, USN

Subj: LETTER OF APPRECIATION

- 1. Your quick actions during an "El Nino" related storm were responsible for the protection of lives and property onboard the Center during which the installation suffered approximately $1M in associated storm damage. Your vigilance and dedication to duties placed you in the elements while performing your traffic direction and road closure assignments. Additionally, when storm waters encroached and eventually entered the Security Department building your quick response and sandbagging efforts saved countless pieces of emergency and communications equipment and allowed the Department to continue its mission.
- 2. Your outstanding professionalism and dedication to duty reflected great credit upon yourself. Thank you for a job "Well Done".
